GUIDE TO CONTACTING YOUR ELECTED OFFICIALS

If possible contact your elected official in person. However, your views can also be expressed effectively through letters, e-mail, faxes or phone calls.

Contacting your elected officials is not difficult. Here are a few guidelines, which will make communicating with your officials even easier.

- ◆ Identify yourself. Write on your personal or business letterhead. If your letter is not typed, write legibly so it can be easily read and understood. Make certain there is a return address on the letter, not just on the envelope.
- ◆ Concentrate on your own representatives.
- ◆ Identify your subject. State the name of the legislation you are writing about. If you know the number, use it. Speak to only one issue per letter.
- ◆ State your reason for writing. Explain how this issue will affect you, your family, your business or your city or state. Be reasonable. Consider timing. Don't threaten or ask for the impossible. Try to give your legislator time to act by contacting her/him before or while the proposal is in the committee.
- ◆ Ask for her/his position. You are more likely to get a response if you request his/her stand on the issue.
- ◆ Follow up on your representative's vote. Thank your members if they please you on a vote. On the other hand, let them know if they have displeased you.
